JOSEPH McDONALD, Proth'y. MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—The Rev. T. L. Keese, who, we believe, was formerly stationed at Johnstown, and was very highly esteemed and respected by the citizens of that place, has recently very mysteriously disappeared from Greensburg, Westmoreland county, as the following from the Argus will show:—The Rev. Mr. Keese, Pastor of the United Brethren Church of this place, left his home on the 19th of October, to assist a brother at Altoona. Since then he has not been heard of. It is ascertained that he did not go to Altoona, and the most painful speculations are felt by his wife and friends on his account. Mr. Keese is an able and popular preacher, happy in his family relations, and no man was more prudent and circumspect in his deportment. He has a wife and five children, to whom he was a kind and affectionate husband and father. For some days before he left, he appeared to be gloomy and in deep trouble. Simultaneous with his leaving home, a very handsome and fascinating young grass widow disappeared in a mysterious manner. The disappearance of the grass widow on the same day that Mr. Keese left has thrown a dark cloud around the circumstance, and filled the hearts of his wife and friends with unalloyed anguish. We trust however, that a few days will explain the matter in such a manner as to relieve the character of the Rev. gentleman from suspicions that now surround him, and restore him to that high position in the affections of his congregation that he has hitherto occupied. Mrs. Keese publishes the following Card:—

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.—REV. T. L. Keese, minister of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, residing in Greensburg, Westmoreland county, Pa., having a wife and five children, left home on the 19th of October to fill an appointment for Rev. E. Dick, in Altoona, on the following Sabbath. He also intended to stop on his way in Johnstown several days. On inquiry, it was ascertained that he had not been at either place, nor can any traces of his whereabouts be ascertained. Any information concerning him will be gladly received by his wife. Address: MARGARET ANN KEESY, Greensburg, Westmoreland county, Pa.

THE WEATHER.—Indian Summer is upon us, and the weather is delightful.

THANKSGIVING TURKEYS.—Well! days and weeks have passed since we published the Governor's Proclamation; the season wanes; the nights grow cold; the 24th of November comes on apace; yet have we seen no sign—no, not even the least sign—of our Thanksgiving Turkey. That he is in existence at this very moment, we entertain not the least shadow of a doubt.—That he—"magnificent biped" as he is—was hatched and fed and reared for our especial benefit;—that he lives for us, and will die for us, is just as certain as Fate. But the locality of the bird—the locus in quo—ah! that is not so certain. On whose corn and oats is he now revelling? Whose barn-yard is he pacing with measured tread, as he puts to shame all the minor specimens of the feathered kingdom, in the shape of ducks, geese and chickens? Or whose coop is he rendering vocal with his delightful notes of gobble! gobble! gobble! These are questions which perplex us. Who has our Turkey? Reader, whatever your nation, kindred, color, occupation, or politics,—if you have our Turkey,—do as you would wish to be done by, and bring him to our Sanctum.

N. B. If several of our readers should fancy they have our Turkey, it will be all right. Moreover, we think he is a fat Turkey; but if he isn't, you will confer a favor by making him so. If you should prefer bringing him in immediately after reading this notice, we would suggest that a little oats or corn be brought along as an accompaniment. It is yet two full weeks until Thanksgiving Day, and provisions of that kind are very scarce in our town. Turkeys can't live on the wind.

THE RULES.—Rules and Regulations are indispensable to the good government and well being of every association and place of business; and as the rules of each establishment are peculiar to that establishment, so the rules of a Printing Office are peculiar to a Printing Office.—We clip from an exchange a most admirable code of the latter kind, and having adopted it entire, proceed to lay it down for the benefit of ourselves and all who may hereafter be curious enough to visit our office. We trust that all our friends will study this code with care, as we are determined that "ignorance of the law shall excuse no man"—no, not even a woman:

- 1. Enter softly. 2. Sit down quietly. 3. Subscribe for the paper. 4. Don't touch the paper. 5. Say nothing interesting. 6. Engage in no controversy. 7. Don't smoke. 8. Keep six feet from the table. 9. Don't talk to the printers. 10. Hands off the papers. 11. Eyes off the manuscripts.

Men observing these rules, when entering a printing office, will greatly oblige the printers, and need not fear the devil. P. S. Persons on business are not required to be particular in observing the rules. N. B. The ladies who sometimes bless us with their sweet smiles, and ever welcome presence, for a few moments, are not expected to keep the rules very strictly, and indeed it will be agreeable to us to have them break the fifth, eighth and ninth rules as often as convenient.

PENNA. RAIL ROAD.—After the 14th inst., the running of the trains on this admirably conducted road will be governed by a new schedule. We will note the change, publishing the "arrivals and departures" of the several trains at Wilmore and Cresson, if our friends at those points will be good enough to furnish us with them.

P. S. Since the above was put in type, we have received from our friends, James S. Clark, Esq., and G. W. Kerby, Esq., the following schedules, for which they will please accept our thanks:—

CRESSON STATION. Passenger trains leave Cresson Station as follows: On and after Monday, November 14th 1859.

Table with 2 columns: Going West, Going East. Rows include Mail Train, Fast Line, Express, Local Freight with times and agents.

WILMORE STATION. Passenger trains leave Wilmore Station as follows: On and after Monday, November, 14th 1859.

Table with 2 columns: Going West, Going East. Rows include Express, Fast Line, Mail Train, Local Freight with times and agents.

FRESH FISH.—On Saturday last, Maj. James D. Hamilton, of Wilmore, who has always a desire to furnish the people of that place and this with everything good that the market affords, sent us a mammoth fresh fish, weighing six pounds.—Where it came from originally, or what manner of fish it was, we do not know; but of one thing we are certain—it was not hard to take. We understand this was but a sample of the kind which the Major will offer to sell our citizens to-day. We hope he may be liberally patronized.

BEAUTIFUL SONG.—[The following song is said to have been composed by the Musician of Mary Queen of Scott's, and to have been addressed to her. Our friend Mr. George Barrett sings it beautifully. The truth is, at singing a song, or playing the guitar, he is hard to beat, and as a civil engineer, a type setter, and a gentleman, he has few superiors.—Democrat & Scintilla.]

Queen of my soul! whose star-like eyes, Are all the light I seek; Whose voice in sweetest melodies Can love or pardon speak, Bow me to thy loved control, Queen of my soul! Mary! Mary! Queen of my soul!

The perfumed rose for thee is twined, The lute awakes its strain; Then shall the withering Northern winds Steal all thy sweets in vain? No, by beyond thy fate's control, Queen of my soul! Mary! Mary! Queen of my soul!

DICKENS' WORKS.—We have received the sixth volume of Peterson's cheap weekly issue of "Dickens Works for the Million," containing the conclusion of Old Curiosity Shop and commencement of David Copperfield. The volumes are furnished at twenty-five cents each, or five dollars for the complete set of twenty-eight volumes, sent free of postage to any place in the United States. We commend the determination of this enterprising Philadelphia firm, to furnish the complete and entire works of Charles Dickens at a price so reasonable, that all persons whatever may possess a full set, and direct the especial attention of our readers to the fact, and would advise them all to make a remittance of Five Dollars at once, and secure the entire set.

HOW TO MAKE A FORTUNE.—As this seems to be the question of the day, and as numerous other great men have given their different modes of arriving at this greatly-wished-for conclusion, we hazard our views on the subject to the public.—They are simply these: Be honest, industrious, and frugal; live within your income; don't buy an article you do not need because it is cheap; advertise your business through the columns of the Alleghanian; and love God and be merry.—If this recipe don't carry you through, you can then try the reverse, and see how it works.

JEWELRY STORE.—Joseph G. Holmes, the proprietor of the large Jewelry Store, on Main street, Johnstown, keeps constantly on hand a splendid assortment of Clocks, Watches, etc., which he makes it a point to sell at ruinously low rates. He does a pretty extensive business in the way of advertising, and, as a natural consequence, sells more Jewelry, and cheaper, than those establishments which do not.

MARRIED.—On the 25th ult., at Summitville Borough, by the Rev. Mr. Ryan, Mr. ARTHUR STORM to Miss ELIZABETH M'DERMITT, all of Cambria county.

On the 20th ult., by the Rev. Mr. JOHN J. GLASS, of Hemlock, Cambria county, to Miss SARAH LITZINGER, of Cleveland, Ohio., formerly of Loretto, Cambria county.

LOCAL ITEMS.—We desire to make the Local Department of our Paper as interesting as possible. We are constrained, therefore, to again ask our friends in all parts of the county to send us an account of any matter of interest which may occur in their respective neighborhoods.—We will feel duly grateful for such favors.

GOODS AT REDUCED PRICES.—Robert Plinn, Esq., of Wilmore, is at present engaged in closing out his entire stock of Goods on hand, and in doing so, must necessarily sell cheap. The good citizens of Wilmore should embrace this opportunity of buying good and low-priced articles, and give him a call.

SADDLERY.—Those of our readers in need of Saddles, Bridles, Harness, etc., can have their orders filled by James Maguire, on short notice. His establishment is situated on Horner street, where those in want of such articles are respectfully invited to call.

DIED.—On the morning of the 7th inst., at the residence of his father, in Johnstown, Dr. THOMAS P. ROBERTS, aged 27 years and 10 months.

On the 5th inst., at Jefferson, HARKINS OET, in the 37th year of his age.

LYCEUM.—The question for discussion at the Ebensburg Lyceum, on next Friday evening, is: Resolved, That government should not enact laws for the support of the poor.
